

LCDR Jason P. Fahy, CEC, USN

Commanding Officer Underwater Construction Team TWO

Lieutenant Commander Fahy was born in Wayland, NY.

He was commissioned through the United States Naval Academy in October 2002, and reported onboard as Commanding Officer to Underwater Construction Team TWO in July 2013.

He is married to Jaime Fahy of Annapolis MD. They have two children, Quinlan 7, and Campbell 5.

Career History:

- Project Officer, NAVFAC ESC, Washington DC; 2008 – 2010
- Independent Public Works Officer, Naval Health Care New England, RI; 2004 – 2006
- Company Officer, Naval Mobile Construction Battalion THREE; 2002 – 2004

Education:

- Masters of Science, Ocean Engineering, University of Rhode Island; 2007
- Bachelors of Science In General Engineering, United States Naval Academy; 2002

Professional Qualifications:

- Professional Engineer, MD – Construction
- Contracting Level 1 Certification
- Program Management Level 1 Certification

Awards:

- Joint Commendation Medal
- Army Commendation
- Navy Commendation (3rd)
- Humanitarian Service Medal